The Song of Jeremiah in Lamentations 3:19 – 26
Read by Mr. Jeph Acosta

Remember my affliction and my misery, the wormwood and the gall. My soul still remembers and sinks within me. This I recall to my mind, therefore I have hope. It is of the LORD'S mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not. They are new every morning: great is thy faithfulness. The LORD is my portion, says my soul, therefore I hope in him. The LORD is good to them that wait for him, to the soul that seeks him. It is good that a man should hope and wait quietly for the salvation of the LORD.

The Hymn of Ephesians 1:3-14
Read by Rev. Rector Cadayday
President, Doane Baptist Seminary
(Congregation is seated)

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ: Just as he chose us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him, in love having predestined us to adoption as sons by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will, to the praise of the glory of his grace, by which he made us accepted in the beloved. In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace; which he made to abound in us in all wisdom and prudence; having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he purposed in himself: That in the dispensation of the fullness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth - in him: In him also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestined according to the purpose of him who works all things according to the counsel of his own will: That we, who first trusted in Christ should be to the praise of his glory. In him you also trusted, after you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also, having believed, you were sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise, who is the guarantee of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, to the praise of His glory.

The Prayer

Music by David Foster

Words by Hannah Cudal

based on Isaiah 9, Psalm 18, 31, John 3

Thai Translation by Chutima Sukajintanakarn

Oh Lord be Thou our guide, O Wisdom from on high. Oh grant us to behold, Thy countenance of grace. Let this be our prayer, when we lose our way, lead us to Thy peace, guide us by Thy grace, in Thy everlasting arms. We pray Thy way be known, abroad in all the world, the splendor of Thy name, the power of Thy Word. Let this by our prayer, closer to Thee grow, let Thy word appear, show Thy glory here, to Thy children all delight. Thou our Rock, our Fortress and Deliverer, Almighty Father Thou art with us. Thou Prince of Peace, O Thee my Great Redeemer, Friend of a sinner, lover of my soul. Who sent His only begotten Son of God, whose trust in Him, did God's great love outpour. Let this be our prayer, let this be our prayer, lead us by Thy way, guide us by Thy grace, oh my refuge and my strength. Lead us to Thy peace, guide us by Thy grace, Jesus Christ, my love my all.

The Psalms, Hymns, & Spiritual Songs of the Bible

The Bible is full of exhortation when it comes to singing the Psalms, Hymns, and Spiritual Songs of the Bible. Passages in Colossians 3:16 and Ephesians 5:19 give reason as to why: "Let the Word(s) of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom...in psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs." Hymns and spiritual songs are placed together on equal standing with the 150 psalms of the Tehillim, the poetry books of the Old Testament, and are considered part of Scripture.

Colossians 1:15-20, 1 Timothy 3:16, 1 Corinthians 8:6, including those in the pre-service portion of the program are hymns that ascribe praise, describe attributes, and proclaim truths about God. Spiritual songs, such as the song of Mary in Luke 1:46-55, are lyrical songs which we know are "God-breathed," by their inclusion in the Scriptures. The psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs of the Bible provide the perfect words for personal and corporate praise.

The Duriya Tasana musicians, or "Curators of the Arts," are comprised mainly of music teachers and professors from the Bunditpatanasilpa Fine Arts Department, School of Music, Dance, and Fine Arts, Bangkok. Formed in 2012, The Duriya Tasana musicians were assembled expressly under the commission of the Thai-Psalms Project, an endeavor dedicated to creating Thai traditional and classical music settings for the Psalms of the Bible. In Thailand, the psalms, or "phleng sadudi" are typically known to be songs used especially for praise of the King, and thus have become a most fitting setting for the Psalms of the Bible.

About Christy Gibson

Christy Gibson, a young Anglo-Dutch woman, has made Thailand her home since she moved here with her parents at the age of six. She is a professional singer and performer who has become a household name in Thailand ever since she launched into the music scene twelve years ago as a singer of lukthoong and moh lum cultural styles of Thai music. She has had eight very successful albums over the last twelve years, and has appeared as guest singer on a number of other albums as well. She has had the distinct honor of being handpicked to record H.M. the King of Thailand's composition Glai Roong for the H.M. Blues album and concert tour honoring H.M. the King of Thailand and his 60 year reign.

She has been called "the face of east-meets-west" and "a Cultural Ambassador." She has a passion for using her talents to bridge cultural divides. Christy performs in concerts throughout the country, both commercially and for a variety of social causes. She has also performed internationally at many cultural events throughout the world, including Laos, Taiwan, Singapore, India, Jordan, England, Switzerland, Germany, and the USA.

Among many other prestigious awards, her album in 2011, Yah Yohm Pae, became an anthem of hope for many during the massive floods in Thailand that year, and she received the Siam Dara Star Award for the Greatest Lukthoong Song of 2011. Christy is one of the founding members of iCare Thailand Foundation and serves as goodwill ambassador and public relations representative. Her music features prominently in charitable projects to assist the underprivileged.

About Arnfield P. Cudal

Arnfield P. Cudal, MBA, PhD, Vice President of HARK Ministries, began music studies in Thailand. Arnfield, who considers music a hobby, is a classical pipe-organist, pianist, and church musician, having served as Director of Music, Concert Series Director, and Organist Choirmaster at various churches throughout the States. He has performed numerous organ recitals including organist at Palm Beach Atlantic University's An Evening of the Choral Music of John Rutter, conducted The Many Moods of Christmas with the Palm Beach Opera Orchestra, performed as harpsichordist with the Ray Robinson Chorale's performance of Handel's Messiah and as solo pianist in Gershwin's Rhapsody in Blue. Arnfield, son of Richfield & Amelita Cudal, PABWE missionaries to Thailand from 1971-1979, has been invited as Guest Conductor for this 50th Anniversary Celebration.

Arnfield, an author for HARK Seminary books and articles, and contributing writer for the 1024 Project.com, is also Editor of HARK Publications and Producer for HARK Music Publications. Arnfield is professor of Theology, Philosophy, Ethnomusicology, and Christian Apologetics for HARK Seminary and speaks at music and worship conferences throughout the USA and Asia. An investor and proprietor, Arnfield and his wife, Mary, along with their four children, own and operate Casa Coco Retreats, a family-run luxury-vacation home business in West Palm Beach, Florida.
